PASTOR'S CORNER:

CHURCH NIGHT AT THE SWAMPDOGS BASEBALL GAME.

What a success and a lot of fun! We didn't win the game but we sure had a lot of fun. We had around 90 participants. It was great exposure for our small church. Even Lew, the owner of the team, sat with us for a while. He even sprayed us with his signature water sprinkler. I think the kids got a big kick out of that. Thanks for your support!

In September we begin Religious Ed again as the school year starts. I'll give you the beginning date later. Also, we will be looking forward toward our next parish function: Church Picnic/Liturgy at Honeycutt Park scheduled of Sunday, 30 September 2018.

In the meantime,

God Bless and Have A Blessed Week,
