10th Sunday of Pentecost

Saint Anne, Mother of Our Lady the Virgin Mary

St. Anne, was born in Bethlehem and married Joachim, who was from Nazareth. He was denied permission to offer sacrifice in the temple because his wife, Anne, was barren. Joachim went into the desert to fast and plead with God to give them a child. Anne also prayed to the Lord for a child. An angel appeared to assure them that they would be given a child and they were to name her Mary and dedicate her to God. Mary, who was to become the mother of Jesus, was born to St. Anne free of original sin, and her parents dedicated her to God as directed by the angel.

St Anne's feast day was made universal by Pope Gregory XIII the Maronite Church celebrates her feast day, on July 25th.

St. Anne, Hebrew for Hannah, meaning "grace", eventually became the patron saint of married women and childless couples.

There is only one historic church bearing the name St. Anne in Lebanon. It is in Annaya, Lebanon near the church of St. Maron.

May the Prayers of St. Anne be with us!
